Permit Volume Overview

San Francisco issued 1,589 building permits this month. The bulk of activity — 1,554 permits (97.8%) — consisted of over-the-counter alteration permits, which cover interior remodels, tenant improvements, and routine property upgrades. Structural additions and alterations accounted for another 7 permits (0.4%), while ground-up new construction represented 0 projects (0.0%) of total volume. Demolition activity stood at 0 permits this period.

Permit Type	Count	Share
OTC Alterations	1,554	97.8%
Additions / Alterations	7	0.4%
New Construction	0	0.0%
Signs	28	1.8%
Demolitions	0	0.0%

Project Valuation

The combined declared value of all permitted projects this month totaled $41.22 million, with an average project valuation of $26,122. San Francisco consistently ranks among the highest-cost construction markets in the country, reflecting both elevated material and labor costs. High declared valuations signal opportunity for contractors and trade specialists operating in premium markets.
