Permit Volume Overview

San Francisco issued 2,062 building permits this month. The bulk of activity — 1,893 permits (91.8%) — consisted of over-the-counter alteration permits, which cover interior remodels, tenant improvements, and routine property upgrades. Structural additions and alterations accounted for another 85 permits (4.1%), while ground-up new construction represented 0 projects (0.0%) of total volume. Demolition activity stood at 1 permits this period.

Permit Type	Count	Share
OTC Alterations	1,893	91.8%
Additions / Alterations	85	4.1%
New Construction	0	0.0%
Signs	83	4.0%
Demolitions	1	0.0%

Project Valuation

The combined declared value of all permitted projects this month totaled $217.46 million, with an average project valuation of $105,460. San Francisco consistently ranks among the highest-cost construction markets in the country, reflecting both elevated material and labor costs. High declared valuations signal opportunity for contractors and trade specialists operating in premium markets.
